FULFILL

"Everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled."

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

LIVE THE LITURGY

Sometimes when God appears in our path, we do not recognize him. In these moments, Jesus invites us to reach out and touch him. Remember that Christ is real, Christ is alive, and Christ stands before each one of us — so reach out. Touch him.

©LPi

VIV LITIJI AN

Gen de fwa, Bondye parèt sou wout nou, men nou pa rekonèt Li. Nan moman sa yo, Jezi ankouraje nou pou nou lonje men nou, konsa n'a rive touche Bondye. Sonje, Jezikri se pa yon rèv, Jezikri vivan byen vivan, e Li la bò kote nou chak; kidonk—lonje men nou: touche Li.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

A veces, cuando Dios aparece en nuestro camino, no lo reconocemos. En estos momentos, Jesús nos invita a acercarnos y tocarlo. Recuerda que Cristo es real, Cristo está vivo y Cristo está ante cada uno de nosotros, así que extiende tu mano. Tócalo.

3RD. SUNDAY OF EASTER

When I was a kid, a friend at my home parish told me, "If you get to Mass by the Gospel reading, it counts!" As a lifelong late-arriver, it's something I have told myself many times, especially in my earlier years as a Catholic. If the "it counts" is justifiable on a pathetically minimal scale of liturgical legalism, then the Gospel reading today shows how insanely wrong-headed it is, and how helpful it is to re-think the Mass in its light.

The famous "Road to Emmaus" story recounts, on that first Sunday of the Resurrection, the basic two-fold structure of the Mass: Word, followed by Eucharist. Jesus spends a significant period of time with two dismayed disciples, as he connects a wide swath of the Hebrew scriptures with his own suffering, death, and resurrection. They would later report that this Liturgy of the Word touched their hearts with an inexplicable fire. This Word-induced flame alone is what leads the two disciples to discover Jesus' presence in the "breaking of the bread."

With this in mind, how can we possibly think that the Liturgy of the Word is unnecessary or incidental? The two disciples needed the Scriptures explained to them in order to experience Jesus alive in the eucharistic breaking of bread. Sure, we say, but they had the Risen Jesus. But that's precisely the point: Jesus is risen and accompanies us in both parts of the Mass. Imagine how much our experience of Jesus in the Eucharist would deepen if we (preachers and listeners) took even more seriously that Jesus himself sets our hearts ablaze with his Word so that we know him in the Eucharist. That Word-induced fire counts, too!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

THE TWIST ENDING

Any reader of psychological thrillers will come across the “dead main character trope” fairly often. This is the famous Sixth Sense twist ending (I would say “spoiler alert,” but the movie is older than most of the people who work in Youth Ministry at your archdiocese, so you’ve probably seen it by now) where the reader finds that the main character has been dead for all or most of the story.

I’m always a little disappointed when this happens. It delivers shock value, sure, but it also undermines everything that happens in the story. You’ve come on a journey with this character, only to find out that nothing you saw transpire was real in the way you thought it was. You feel a little stupid, because the whole time you only had part of the truth.

I suspect Jesus knows this about us. He knows we don’t like to have the rug pulled out. It’s why he is so up-front about his humanity following the resurrection. See how Jesus, resurrected, shows the disciples his feet, his hands. See how he asks them for food and lets them watch him eat it. See how this creates in them an understanding, a belief.

The humanity of Jesus Christ is absolutely crucial. It’s what bridges the divide between the sons of Eve and the God she defied. Our reconciliation with God cannot happen unless human flesh pays the price that will balance the scales. Human flesh: skin that can tear and bleed, bones that can break, a mouth that can thirst, a stomach that can ache with hunger.

The passion and death of Jesus Christ is not a thriller with a twist ending: he was a ghost the whole time! The twist, if anything, is this: he was human the whole time.

“Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have.” — Luke 24:39

CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

ANGELS

Question:

I’ve heard that we become angels when we die. Is this what the Church teaches?

Answer:

As human beings, we are both spiritual and corporeal. We are body and soul. This makes us unique in all creation. No other physical creature — plant or animal — possesses an immortal soul made in God’s image and likeness. Like the distinction with plants and animals, angels have an entirely different sort of existence. Angels are pure immortal spirit, and they have been so since the moment of their creation. While they may take on an appearance of a body in Biblical history, they are not a body like we are. Angels are neither male nor female, despite the art we often see.

As the result of the Fall, human beings experience death. Our souls are temporarily separated from our bodies. However, we do not become something other than human. Every Sunday in the Creed we profess “I believe in the resurrection of the body.” As Jesus was united with his body on the third day, so too will we be united with our bodies at the end of time. ©LPI

PRAYER FOR:

IN TIMES OF DARKNESS

Dear Jesus,

When I feel troubled, alone, frightened, be with me. Be a flicker of flame in this darkness. Help me to know you in the dark seasons as I do in times of elation. You are the light I seek.

AMEN ©LPI

PUZZLE

GROWING WITH THE GOSPEL

CYCLE B

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

Peter challenges the religious leaders of Jerusalem who put Jesus to death to repent of their sins and be converted. Have you ever seen someone have a conversion to the Faith?

Second Reading:

John tells us that we should turn to Jesus, our Advocate, when we sin and fail to keep his commandments. Can you think of a time when you sought Jesus in a time of need?

Gospel:

The resurrected Jesus taught the disciples how they were witnesses to the Scriptures being fulfilled in his suffering, death, and resurrection and that forgiveness of sins was to be preached in his name. How might you share your faith this week at home or at work? ©LPI

Petèt tou nou pa toujou rekonèt sa la menm, epi apre, nou vin reyalize sa k' tap pase jouktan sa fè nou tranble oubyen ban nou « chè d' pou! » Yon jou oubyen yon lòt, nou chak eksperimente reyalite lagras sa nan lavi nou. Se moman kote nou te depase obstak nou yo, kote nou te jwenn fòs pou nou byen sòti anba danje, se lè nou jwenn nou yon kote, nou santi nou an sekirite. E malgre nou pa toujou pare pou pale sou relijyon nou ak zanmi nou yo, ak konpanyon travay nou oubyen ak yon etranje, san nou pa atann bouch nou louvri pou'n rakonte sa ki te pase nou akòz Providans Bondye. TERCER DOMINGO DE PASCUA

Cada uno enseña uno

Cada uno de nosotros pasa por milagros en algún momento. Tal vez lo sepamos en ese momento y alabemos a Dios de corazón. O tal vez sólo miremos hacia atrás más tarde, nos demos cuenta de que el camino está en llamas detrás de nosotros, y nos estremecemos. Tarde o temprano, todos conocemos el misterio de la gracia que nos lleva por sobre los obstáculos, a través de los peligros, y nos conduce a un lugar seguro. Somos testigos de estas cosas. Y aunque seamos reacios a "hablar de religión" con amigos, compañeros de trabajo y desconocidos, nos encontraremos con momentos en los que es necesario contar lo que sabemos sobre la Divina Providencia. Permanece atento para cuando se requiera tu testimonio.

LECTURAS PARA HOY: Hechos 3:13-15, 17-19; 1 Juan 2:1-5a; Lucas 24:35-48 (47). "Ustedes son testigos de estas cosas."

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Each one teach one

Each of us walks through miracles eventually. Maybe we know it at the time and praise God heartily. Or perhaps we only look back later, realize the road's on fire behind us, and shiver. Sooner or later, we all experience the mystery of grace that carries us over obstacles, through dangers, and ferries us to safety. We are witnesses of these things. And even if we're reluctant to "talk religion" to friends, co-workers, and strangers, we'll inhabit hours when it's time to tell what we know about Divine Providence. Be attentive for when your testimony is required.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 3:13-15, 17-19; 1 John 2:1-5a; Luke 24:35-48 (47). "You are witnesses of these things."

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month:

Did you know...Child abuse can occur in every culture and every socio-economic demographic. Peer reviewed research, especially that of the past 30 years, repeatedly shows this to be true. This same research indicates that the vast majority of child abuse occurs at the hands of someone known to the victim. Those who seek to do harm to children will pursue opportunities that provide access to children and may even ingratiate themselves into the home. You can protect children by respecting the safe environment protocols established at youth serving organizations. More importantly, you can implement many of these protocols in your home and be ever observant and vigilant in all public and private settings.
