30TH. SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In our secularized culture, we all struggle with belief in God, at least to some degree. An atheist man named Robert Bridges once wrote to his friend, the Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins, asking how he could possibly learn to believe in God. Hopkins pithily responded: "Give alms." Would that help someone tempted by atheism today, like you and me?

I think so, and here's why. This week Jesus speaks of love for God and neighbor. These dual commands were nothing new when Jesus used them to sum up the Jewish law. What is new is the way he links them together in mutual dependency. In Jesus, God and man have become one. Human-love and God-love are now inseparably married forever.

The newness of the God-man means that there is now a permanently counter-intuitive way into the knowledge and love of God: love of our neighbor. To experience charity is to know God. That's what Hopkins was getting at for his friend. How we treat our fellow human beings is inseparable from faith in God. Do you want to have a stronger sense of God's loving presence and goodness? Commit to serving someone today and this week. Love him or her. Don't wait for love for God to appear in your heart before loving others. Jesus has united divine and human love. If you want to believe more in God, give alms.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

27 WORDS THAT MATTER

One of the quickest things you learn as a parent is how dangerous it is to explain too much, especially when your kid is teetering on the brink of a rebellion. The fewer words you use, the more power they have. A kid who is about to be carried away by their feelings needs to be brought back to earth with a tether made of short, succinct directions.

There are a lot of similarities between the Pharisees of Scripture and a toddler on the edge of a meltdown. Stay with me — this will make sense, I promise. Think about it: both toddlers and Pharisees have lots of feelings and lots of opinions. Both toddlers and Pharisees think you're out to get them. Both toddlers and Pharisees keep trying to trick you to get what they think they want.

A thorough Google search informs me that there are about 80,000 words in the Torah. Eighty-thousand words, and Jesus can boil it all down to 27: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind" and "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

It doesn't make the excess words untrue; it doesn't even make them unnecessary. Sometimes I need the long explanation, the full and complete picture. Because sometimes, as much as I hate to admit it, I act like both a toddler and a Pharisee. I am carried away by my feelings. I don't trust God. I am about to bolt.

When that happens, I need to be told in short and simple terms what my salvation means. I need a tether made of short, succinct directions.

"The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." — Matthew 22:40

QUESTION:

ANSWER:

The Order of Preachers

SACRAMENTAL SEAL

Question: What is a sacramental seal and where did it come from?

Answer: Leaving more than just a memory, there are some events in our life that are truly transforming, making us different people. The same thing can be said of spiritual things, especially sacraments. A sacramental seal or character is a theological concept to describe the life-changing and permanent effect of three sacraments on the person: baptism, confirmation, and holy orders. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that these sacraments confer a seal "by which the Christian shares in Christ's priesthood and is made a member of the Church according to different states and functions. This configuration to Christ and the Church, brought about by the Spirit, is indelible" (#1121).

Once we receive these sacraments, we are forever changed. It's a spiritual "point of no return" whereby we take a step forward in our faith journey. We are marked as people of faith, as those who have received the Spirit and as those called to serve in ordained ministry. That is why these sacraments are received only once. The direction is set, the choice is made, and we are called by God to be his people. Nothing can change that, not even our own sinfulness. ©LPI

REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE

First Reading:

We hear today some of the laws that Moses received from God on Mount Sinai. Namely, God's expectation that we show compassion for those most vulnerable in society. How could you show care for those in need this week?

Second Reading:

Paul praised the Thessalonians for being role models of the faith for the surrounding regions of Achaia and Macedonia. How do you model your faith to family and friends?

Gospel:

For Jesus, love of God and love of neighbor and self are the most important commandments. Which of these commandments do you do best?

TRANTYÈM DIMANCH TAN ÒDINÈ A

E si m ta poze w kèk keksyon?

Mesaj jodiya sou pi gran kòmandman an souleve kèk kesyon: Ann sipoze pou yon moman, kòm yon moun ki kwè nan Bondye, "lanmou w pou Bondye" byen chita. Konneya, kilès nan komandman sa ki pi difisil pou ou: renmen pou pwochen w oswa renmen pou pwòp tèt ou?

- ◆ Si se lanmou pou pwochen ki difisil, poukisa? Èske w twouve w enpasyan ak enpèfeksyon ak limit lòt moun genyen? Èske gen bagay pratik ou ka fè ki ta ede w gen plis pasyans ak konpasyon?
- ◆ Si se lanmou pou tèt ou ki yon defi pou ou, èske w ka dekouvri kèk nan kòz sa a? Èske gen pwoblèm douloure nan anfans ou oswa relasyon famiyal ki poko rezoud? Èske w ka fè yon etap jodi a ki pral ede w kòmanse santi w pi byen nan tèt ou?

LEKTI POUJODIYA: Egzòd 22:20-26; 1 Tesalonik 1:5-10; Matye 22:34-40 (148). "Wa renmen Granmèt Bondye w la ak tout kè w, ak tout nanm ou, ak tout fòs ou."

TRIGÉSIMO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO A

¿Y si te hicieras algunas preguntas?

El mensaje de hoy sobre el mandamiento más importante plantea una pregunta: supongamos por el momento que, como creyente, su "amor a Dios" está bien planteado. Siendo así, ¿cuál de los mandamientos te resulta más difícil: el amor al prójimo o el amor a ti mismo?

- ◆ Si el amor al prójimo es el mayor desafío, ¿por qué? ¿Se siente impaciente con las deficiencias y limitaciones de los demás? ¿Existen prácticas que le ayudarán a cultivar una mayor paciencia y compasión?
- ◆ Si el amor a uno mismo es el desafío, ¿puedes descubrir algunas de las causas de ello? ¿Hay problemas dolorosos de su infancia o de sus relaciones familiares que aún no se han resuelto? ¿Puedes dar un paso hoy que te ayude a empezar a sentirte mejor con si mismo?

LECTURAS PARA HOY: Éxodo 22:20-26; 1 Tesalonicenses 1:5c-10; Mateo 22:34-40 (148). "Amarás al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma y con toda tu mente."

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME A

How about some questions?

Today's message on the greatest commandment raises a question: Let's assume for the moment that as a pastoral minister your "love of God" is well grounded. That being the case, which of the remaining is the more difficult for you: love of neighbor or love of self?

- ◆ If love of neighbor is the more challenging, why so? Do you find you are impatient with others' shortcomings and limitations? Are there practices that will help you cultivate greater patience and compassion?
- ◆ If love of self is the challenge, can you uncover some of the causes for this? Are there painful issues from your childhood or family relationships that have yet to be resolved? Can you take a step today that will help you begin to feel better about yourself?

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 22:20-26; 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10; Matthew 22:34-40 (148). "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind."

* Consagre sólamante quince minutos al día en oración, y su fe se profundizará y crecerá — un día a la vez.

* Invest just fifteen minutes a day in prayer, and your faith will deepen and grow— a day at a time.

* Envesti ken z minit sèlman chak jou nan lapriyè, epi gade wa wè jan lafwa w ap vinn apwofondi, ap grandi yon jou alafwa.
